

2022 NALJ Foundation Fellowship Competition Announcement

Beginning in 1993, NAALJ and its tax exempt 501(c)3 non-profit affiliate, the National Administrative Law Judge Foundation (NALJF), have co-sponsored an annual writing competition on a topic of interest to the administrative judiciary. Past Fellowship award recipients have included many distinguished administrative law judges, hearing officers, and academicians.

We did not have the competition in 2021 due to the pandemic. We are pleased to announce resumption of the competition in 2022. This year we are seeking an article on one of the following topics:

- Impact(s) of Lucia v. SEC, 585 U.S. ____; 138 S. Ct. 2044; 201 L. Ed. 2d 464 (2018);
- Deference to agencies after Auer v. Robbins, 519 U.S. 452; 117 S. Ct. 905; 137 L. Ed. 2d 79 (1997), and expansion of prerequisites for application of Auer Deference set out in Kisor v. Wilkie, No. 18-15; 139 S. Ct. 2400; 204 L. Ed. 2d 841 (2019);
- The importance of ALJ decisional independence and how it can be protected; or
- A scholarly paper on a topic of the applicant's choice.

ONLY ONE Fellowship proposal will be chosen.

All applications for the 2022 Fellowship must be in electronic format (Microsoft Word format preferred) and must include the following documents: (1) an abstract or an introduction to the proposed article; (2) a detailed outline for the proposed article; (3) a writing sample; (4) curriculum vitae; and (5) a list of publications. All submissions must be sent by e-mail to naalj@naalj.org, with a cc to Hon. Carrie Ingram, Fellowship Committee Chair, at CIngram@ieerb.IN.gov

Deadline for submission: March 31, 2022.

The Fellowship Committee will review the submissions and select the Fellowship winner by April 30, 2022.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Prior Fellowship winners, current members of the Fellowship Committee, current members of the NAALJ Journal Board of Advisors, and current officers and directors of the NAALJ Board of Governors MAY NOT APPLY for the Fellowship.

The Fellow will prepare an original article for publication in the Journal of the National Association of Administrative Law Judiciary, and will deliver an oral presentation of up to fifty (50) minutes (subject to a shorter time allotment in the discretion of the annual meeting planners) at the 2022 NAALJ Annual Meeting and Educational Conference. The Fellow will either prepare a summary or outline of oral remarks to be included in the annual meeting materials for CLE credit or will have the final draft of the paper ready for inclusion in conference materials. The final draft of the paper will be due approximately six weeks after the 2022 Annual Meeting and Educational Conference, which will be held in Albuquerque, New Mexico, October 23 -26, 2022.

The Fellow will receive a $1,500.00 cash stipend, as well as transportation, accommodations, and meals, to the 2022 NAALJ Annual Meeting and Educational Conference.

Applications and inquiries regarding the Fellowship should be submitted by e-mail to naalj@naalj.org, with cc to Hon. Carrie Ingram, Fellowship Committee Chair, at CIngram@ieerb.IN.gov.
