

THE NATIONAL JUDICIAL COLLEGE

Learn to reduce hearing caseloads...

MEDIATION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES

March 28 - April 2, 2004
Atlanta, GA

(Timber Ridge Conference Center, Mableton)

Who should attend?

This course is designed for Administrative Law Judges and Hearing Officers.

Register today!

This highly interactive course equips administrative law judges with the skills necessary to be effective mediators and to become certified in states that require a 40-hour education program for certification. Participants will define the essential stages of mediation; plan and conduct a mediation; prevent and break impasse; facilitate decision-making; discuss ethical dilemmas; explore issues of confidentiality and the importance of neutrality; and write effective agreements.

Earn a Professional Certificate!

Qualifies as a requirement toward an NJC Certificate in Judicial Development, Dispute Resolution Skills program and as an elective in the Administrative Law Adjudication Skills program. Call for details.

TUITION: $895 / CONF. FEE: $225

Call for full course description, available credit and to reserve your space.

THE NATIONAL
JUDICIAL COLLEGE

Est. 1963

800-25-JUDGE (800-255-8343)
(775) 784-6747

JUDICIAL COLLEGE BUILDING, MS 358 • RENO, NV 89557 • WWW.JUDGES.ORG